DETAILED ACTION

Upon further consideration, the current examiner of record has determined that an election/restriction is required for this application.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-42 and 74-81, drawn to a system, classified in class 623, subclass 20.14.
- II. Claims 43-73, drawn to a system, classified in class 606, subclass 86.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are directed to related systems for guiding the resection of a bone during arthroplasty. The related inventions are distinct if the (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed are considered two different systems for guiding the resection of a bone during arthroplasty. For example, system I, i.e., claims 1-42 and 74-81, requires an anchoring means and a means for locating a resection guide relative to the anchoring means. System II, i.e., claims 43-73, does not require an anchoring means and a means for locating a resection guide relative to the anchoring means. In another example, system II requires an alignment guide coupled to a resection guide, wherein the alignment guide includes at least a first assembly for positioning the resection guide along a translational path. System I does not require an alignment guide coupled to a resection guide, wherein the alignment guide includes at least a first assembly for positioning the resection guide along a translational path. System II also has additional requirements, such as an alignment guide with a second assembly, an alignment guide with a third assembly and rotational paths, which are not required in system I.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103 (a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
